WE WILL DISCUSS WHICH PROPOSITIONS TO SUPPORT AND WHICH CANDIDATES TO SUPPORT:

By Carl Burton

Why is Republicans of River City important? It's because RRC helps to elect Republican candidates to office.

We do that by supporting candidates with our endorsements, our individual contributions and especially volunteer power. This election year is no different then many in the past where we are called on to pitch in and offer our help.

RRC members have registered voters, sat behind the table handing out information about our candidates, made telephone calls on behalf of our candidates and walked miles of precincts.

Now there are 8 propositions on the November ballot; we have already urged our members to support Prop. 20 that will have the Citizens Redistricting Commission draw the congressional district lines along with the legislature and Board of Equalization district lines and take the job out of the hands of the legislature. In addition, we voted to oppose Prop 27 that will eliminate the Citizens Redistricting Commission and return the entire process to the legislature.

Now its time for Republicans of River City to take a position on:

Proposition 19 that will legalize, tax and regulate marijuana and

Proposition 21 that will enact a vehicle fee (tax increase) to help fund state parks and

Proposition 22 that will restrict state access to local government funds and

Proposition 23 that will suspend Assembly Bill 32 (a law enacted to reduce greenhouse gas emissions) until the unemployment rate drops to 5.5 percent and

Proposition 24 that will repeal legislation that enacted some corporate tax credits and

Proposition 25 that will change the legislative vote requirement for passing the state budget from two-thirds to a majority and

Proposition 26 that will charge the legislative vote requirement for enacting new fees from a majority to two-thirds.

We need to act on these propositions and get our message out to voters because on October 2, absentee ballots will be mailed to voters.

Republicans of River City has already endorsed Scott Jones for Sacramento County Sheriff - we were the first organization in the county to endorse him. None of the candidates running for sheriff in the June Primary election received over 50% of the vote, so Scott Jones' name will appear on the ballot this November and we will stand by him.

But there are a number of other candidates for local cities and school boards and local measures that we need to make decisions on to endorse.

So please come prepared to discuss the propositions and the candidates that you think Republicans of River City should give their support to in the November election.

PLEASE NOTE: YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO VOTE UNLESS YOUR RRC DUES ARE PAID UP TO DATE.
